ON THE SQUARE OR PASS THEM ROUND

The sensible, reasoning person will take advantage of January to purchase a DIAMOND. There are obvious reasons. It is inventory time. Merchants have large bills to pay. Ready money counts more in this month than any other month in the year. We are shading our prices considerably. We have some very attractive diamonds from 1/2 carat up to 3 1/2 carats at prices that should interest you. The coming week we shall sell solid gold bracelets by weight, not by the piece as heretofore.

you will find our Pound Cakes the very best you ever tasted. Why? Because we take pains to make them so. We select every ingredient with the greatest care, we keep our bakery scrupulously clean in all its surroundings, we know how to "make cake right" so the result is we satisfy every critical taste and appetite. The best way for you to be sure of this is to try our cake.

"SPOT" AUSTIN POSED AS BANKER FOR THE GAME

Porter in Club Saloon Used Balance in the Till to Finance Play Early Sunday Morning.

Dave Rollo, fight referee and H. McGrath, arrested early Sunday morning for participating in a game of "craps" in the card room of the Club saloon, on North Second street, and charged, along with four associates in the game, with violating the anti-gambling laws, pleaded not guilty in police court this morning, but under the evidence, were found guilty by the court and sentenced to fines of $20 each and thirty days in jail.
 W. A. "Spot" Austin, Caesar Jackson, Anthony Ferguson, colored, and Fred Payne, a white man, pleaded guilty and were fined $25 each and thirty days each in jail, the jail sentences being suspended during good behavior.
 "Spot" Austin, the porter at the Club saloon, appears to have financed the game, which the evidence showed, started after midnight Saturday night and continued until the small hours of Sunday morning, the game running from 11 cents to a dollar a throw. Fred Shambek, proprietor of the saloon, says that "Spot" in financing the game, not tender and the night's receipts of the players out of the till, but used the change left there for the night bartender and the night's receipts of the bar. Shambek told Chief McMillin the amount was about $70.
 In police court this morning both Rollo and McGrath denied that they had been in the game. Rollo stating that he was in the saloon about 10 o'clock, but that he did not "shoot."
 But the evidence of the three negroes, all of whom testified that Rollo and McGrath were in the game, proved too strong. Caesar Jackson was especially emphatic in identifying Rollo, whose name he did not know. "But," he said to the court, "he shot faded me" and pointed his finger at Rollo.
 The arrests yesterday are the first for some time under the anti-gambling law, the downtown saloons generally having prohibited games for money in their places. The game in the saloon started after the place had been closed for Sunday, it is stated.
 Elias Romero was fined $10 this morning for trespass on the Santa Fe yards. A Santa Fe officer stated that he caught Romero stealing coal.
 Marlin Lente, M. I. Soudoyat and Hugh McAvoy were convicted of being drunk and fined ten dollars each.
 Lou Gurnie, accused of assault with words by neighbors, was warned not to repeat the offense.

CONSULT AN OPTOMETRIST

Never select glasses for yourself, and never purchase glasses from a spectacle peddler.
 The stock of such spectacle sellers is as defective as their knowledge of optics. The lenses are carelessly ground, and frequently not alike, and wearing them usually results in pain in the eyes and injury to the sight.
 Then there is frequently the condition where the two eyes are not alike, requiring a specially ground lens for each eye, of different strength. Such glasses are not found in the peddler's stock.
 We, on the other hand, have the knowledge and the appliances necessary to detect unequal vision or any other defect, and grind lenses to suit.
 If in doubt about your eyes consult us. It's free.

NEW MEXICO CASES BEFORE SUPREME COURT

New Mexico cases will occupy a prominent position in the calendar of the United States supreme court at Washington this week. The well known case of H. Ruppe vs Joseph Barnett and J. A. Westman is being argued, and the famous Alameda and grant case is to be heard this week. In the former case Neil H. Field for the defense and Francis E. Wood for the plaintiff are in Washington while in the Alameda case A. L. McMillin will argue for the appellants and George T. Kluck for the appellees. In the Alameda case the court will be called upon to pass upon the title to some 50,000 acres surrounding the village of Alameda north of Albuquerque, from 1716, when the original grant was made by the King of Spain, down to the present day. The case is considered by lawyers one of the most interesting of the many and grant cases which have been heard in this state.

BAUQUET POSTPONED UNTIL NEXT MONTH

Because of the fact that many merchants still are busy with inventories and a number of members are out of the city, the banquet of the Retail Merchants' association to have been held this week has been postponed until next month. It is planned to make this next banquet a big one, to hold it in Odd Fellows' hall and to invite to it every retail merchant in the city.
